

LIGHT HOUSEHOLD CHORES

Remind that your Au Pair shall be treated as a member of your family.

As such you, we have established a guideline to help you preparing your Au Pair weekly schedule.

ACCEPTABLE

- Anything regarding children
- Putting away children clothes
- Tidying the children's room and playroom as well as her own
- Changing the children's bed
- Cleaning the baths, basins and mirrors in both her and the children's bathroom
- Children's laundry and ironing – this may include a few adults items but not entirely the adults laundry
- Preparing the children's meals
- Clearing the kitchen after meals and removing any spillages etc
- Emptying the dishwasher
- Sweeping the kitchen and hallway floors
- Hoovering & dusting furnitures
- Help in preparing family meals and private dinner parties, if the Au Pair is herself invited
- Light shopping not the weekly shopping, taking clothes to the drycleaner

NOT ACCEPTABLE

- Anything regarding adults, such as cleaning after them or very personal tasks such as putting away clothes, washing underwear
- Spring cleaning
- Changing parent's bed
- Cleaning household appliances thoroughly such as fridges, oven, freezers or microwaves
- Cleaning parent's room and private bathrooms
- Cleaning windows
- Cleaning outside the house
- Watering the garden
- Washing the car
- Preparing, or help prepare private parties if not invited
- Polishing silverware and brass etc